

English Grammar Exercise

1. Write a complete and grammatically valid sentence using all of the following words:

AI, function, increasingly, rely, safety-critical

We rely on AI in safety-critical function increasingly AI relies o

2. Fix one or more grammar errors, if exists, in the following sentence

The failure was happened last night before I was arrived at the office.

The failure happened last night before I arrived at the office

3. Find all adjectives (or adjective clauses) in the following sentences:

The black cat sat on the sunny deck and watched a blue bird. It waved its tail slowly.

4. Fix one or more grammar errors if exists in the following sentence:

John doubted about that I have told him

5. Give an example of ambitransitive verbs, and write a sentence using one.

6. Find one or more full infinitive phrases used as a direct object in the following sentence:

if one self-driving car decides to turn left whereas other turn right for the same input, one of them is likely to be incorrect.

7. Explain the role of the full infinitive in the following sentence.

To understand the concerns, we conducted interviews and questionnaires with 37 persons.

8. Give an example of a verb that takes a gerund as object, and write a sentence example using it.

9. Explain the difference between the following two sentences:

- She remembered to visit her parents
- She remembered visiting her parents

10. Find one or more adjective participles used in the following sentence and explain its meaning.

Researchers have produced “more secure” versions of C that are mostly compatible with existing programs but add additional security features.

11. Fix one or more grammar errors in the following sentence:

I was confusing because I could not understand the manual. The instructions in the manual was confused.

12. Give two sentences with a restrictive clause and a non-restrictive clause, respectively.

